

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, November 13, 2008 5:30 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: RE: degree

Thanks [REDACTED]. I think we better watch [REDACTED] however, she's really got this CIA portion of her job down.
My best to both of you.

[REDACTED]

-----Original Message-----
From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, November 13, 2008 5:25 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: RE: degree

[REDACTED]

I agree. I had [REDACTED] look her up and she is a student at New Mexico State University. My thought was that if she is a BYU student, we might want to do some counseling. She's not, so I would let it go.

[REDACTED]

-----Original Message-----
From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, November 13, 2008 5:23 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: FW: degree

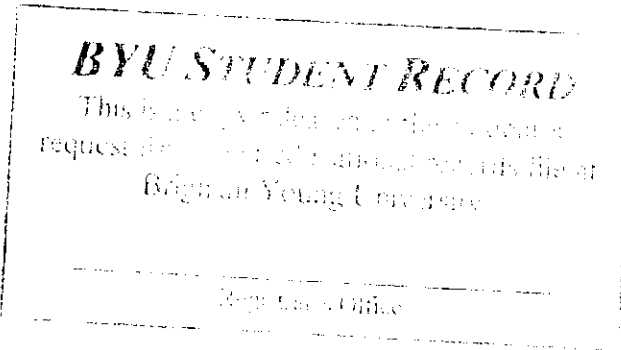

[REDACTED]

Enclosed below is how I responded to [REDACTED] I really don't think a response from us would serve any beneficial purpose here. Please let me know, however, if you think we need to respond.
Have a nice evening,

[REDACTED]

-----Original Message-----
From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, November 13, 2008 4:42 PM
To: 'pres-page@comcast.net'
Subject: RE: degree

[REDACTED]

Thank you for passing this on. At this point, we are certainly reviewing these messages, but we are not responding to most of them. I'm thinking this one falls into that latter category, unless you feel differently.

Have a nice evening.

-----Original Message-----

From: pres-page@comcast.net [mailto:pres-page@comcast.net]
Sent: Thursday, November 13, 2008 10:10 AM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: FW: degree

Hi [REDACTED]

This one's for you. [REDACTED] will see it this afternoon (Thursday) and I'll let him know you have it.

Cheers,

----- Forwarded Message: -----

From: [REDACTED]@nmsu.edu>
To: pres-page@byu.edu
Subject: degree
Date: Tue, 11 Nov 2008 23:31:55 +0000

> [REDACTED] is interested in students' and others' opinions-> especially questions or suggestions that might help BYU better fulfill its mission."
> I have a suggestion---- Don't revoke degrees after they have already > been rewarded! I am referring to Chad Hardy, creator of the hunk calendar.
> To me, that says, "BYU will give you a degree, but if you do anything > to make us mad we will take it away." DOES THIS MEAN THAT ANYONE WHO > HAS BEEN EXCOMMUNICATED FROM THE MORMON CHURCH WILL HAVE THEIR BYU
> DEGREE REVOKED?
> I want to understand how BYU justified revoking Chad Hardy's degree.
> Several of my classmates and I were outraged and were wondering if you > could explain it to us better.
> I understand your reasons for excommunicating him. That is the > church's decision; but the degree he earned is an ENTIRELY separate > issue. You are essentially blackmailing him by saying he can't have > his degree back unless he repairs his standing with the church.
>
> Any information on this matter would be greatly appreciated.
> Sincerely,

> [REDACTED]
> [REDACTED]
>

BYU STUDENT RECORD
The Student Record is the official record of the student's academic progress and is maintained by the Student Record
Department of Brigham Young University.
[REDACTED]